

Writing an Annotation

What was the specific format of the source?
(encyclopedia, interview, video, etc.)

Where did I find this source?
(public library, school media center, home, etc.)

How did I find this source?

Generally, what kind of information could be found in the source?

What information did I find in/with it that was important to me?

What did I really like about this source?

What did I find difficult about this source?